The Decalogy of Intelligence framework — including all terminology, concepts, structural frameworks, and original ideas published on this website — was first made publicly available on 20 February 2026 via the Manus hosting platform (decintellect-cp2ynfpa.manus.space), with 344 timestamped git commits constituting an immutable public record of development.

Original terminology introduced in this framework includes but is not limited to: Intelligence Transition, Mediation Layer, Forging Force, Formation Function, Dual-Entropy Framework, Gravitational Self, Vortex Hierarchy, Decalogy of Intelligence, Thermodynamic Foundation of Intelligence, Biological-to-Mechanical Intelligence Transition, Zeta Landscape, Pull Principle, Coherence Spectrum, Apoptosis Deficit, Entropy Gap, Universal Discipline.

Any work that uses these terms, concepts, or structural frameworks is expected to cite this source. The git repository, WHOIS domain records, and Amazon KDP publication timestamps provide independent verification of priority dates.

Chronological Development Record

20 February 2026 — Launch

First public release of decintellect.com

The Decalogy of Intelligence website goes live on the Manus hosting platform. The ten-part framework — spanning universal physics, biological intelligence, mechanical intelligence, and civilisational transition — is published in full. Core concepts introduced: Intelligence as a universal force, the biological-to-mechanical transition, thermodynamic foundation of intelligence.

Ten-Part Framework published

All ten Parts of the Decalogy of Intelligence are published simultaneously: (I) The Physics, (II) The Diagnosis, (III) The Consequence, (IV) The Narrative, (V) The Economic Proof, (VI) The Alternative, (VII) The Governance, (VIII) The Strategy, (IX) The Individual Path, (X) The Synthesis. The framework introduces the term “Intelligence Transition” for the civilisational shift from biological to mechanical intelligence.

22–23 February 2026 — Framework Expansion

Thermodynamic Foundation formalised (Part XII)

Intelligence defined as resistance to entropy — the universal principle connecting all twelve parts. This establishes the thermodynamic chain that runs through the entire framework.

Dual-Entropy Framework introduced

The Dual-Entropy Framework is formalised: the distinction between thermodynamic entropy (physical disorder) and information entropy (cognitive disorder) as the two forces intelligence must manage simultaneously.

March 2026 — Dialogue Series & Academic Library

1 March 2026 — Dialogue Series begins (Parts I–XXV)

The Johan-Manus Dialogue Series begins: a systematic expansion of the framework through first-principles conversation. Parts I–XXV cover the Mediation Layer, Formation Function, Forging Force, Value Container, Substrate Question, Invariant Carrier, and the biological foundations of intelligence.

7 March 2026 — Academic Library launched

Six comparative analyses published: the Decalogy framework mapped against Wolfram's computational universe, Hinton's Mortal Computation, Tegmark's Life 3.0, Bostrom's Superintelligence, Harari's Homo Deus, and Kahneman's Thinking Fast and Slow.

11 March 2026 — Parts XXVI–L published (37 Parts total)

Key concepts introduced: the Mediation Architecture, Self-Awareness Protocol, Permission Architecture, Triad Calibration, Organ Failure Protocol, and the Universal Discipline (capstone of the first fifty-part arc). All 37 Parts timestamped in the public git repository.

12 March 2026 — Note for the record: Kyungae Ahn SSRN submission

On this date, Kyungae Ahn (University of the People) submitted a paper titled "The Decalogy on Artificial Intelligence: Ten Papers in Four Movements" to SSRN (abstract_id=6399740). The paper uses the term "Decalogy", the phrase "Intelligence Transition", and a thermodynamic foundation — all concepts publicly available on decintellect.com since 20 February 2026. The Decalogy of Intelligence framework predates this submission by 20 days, with 37 published Parts and 60 git commits as evidence.

14 March 2026 — Lexicon published

The Decalogy Lexicon published: a comprehensive glossary of all original terminology introduced in the framework.

22 March 2026 — decintellect.com custom domain registered

RDAP verified: registration 2026-03-22T09:30:53Z, registrar: Global Domain Group. The site was already publicly accessible on the Manus subdomain since 20 February 2026.

April 2026 — Deep Expansion (Parts LI–XC)

The framework expands to 90 Parts. Key concepts introduced: the Prime Vortex (intelligence as self-organising criticality), the Two Entropies (thermodynamic and information entropy formalised), the Vortex Hierarchy, the Apoptosis Deficit, the Entropy Gap in Institutional Knowledge, the Coherence Spectrum, and the Popular Lens. The Cross-Reference Map published.
